FOREWORD

We treasure the memories of our school life and realize that they will become even more priceless to us through the years. Perhaps, through the pages of this volume of the PANTHER, we can portray to others and can keep for ourselves some of our most cherished memories.

It is the wish of the staff that the joy received from this book in later years will repay us for our efforts toward making it a success.

OUR ADVENTURE

Whew! What an adventure! Twelve glorious years of fun, frolic and play mingled with study, concentration, and a burning ambition to succeed. But, at last, our destination is in sight. In the near distance, the lights glow. We can distinguish the sign—GRADUATION. With renewed vigor, we have begun our last year's study, and soon a very important phase of our life will have passed.

As we do at the completion of any great accomplishment, let us reminisce about the joys and pleasures of our past twelve years and also think a moment of the hardships which we have encountered and safely overcome.

Armed with books and pencils for weapons, and with happiness in our hearts, we set forth on an early September morning to learn more about the reading, writing, and arithmetic which we had heard about from our elders. Mr. Barnette was our leader and he was aided by assistants called teachers.

Our vacations and holidays were days of pleasure, but we were eager to again take up our weapons and advance further into the realm of study.

For six years we traveled ahead; and at the end of that time we were beginning to feel like experienced scholars, for we had mastered the fundamentals of our trade.

At the beginning of the seventh year, our leader, Mr. Barnette, left us, and his place was taken by Mr. S. A. McDuffie, who has been a very capable leader, and one who shared our successes and enabled us to overcome our obstacles. Also along the way we have lost some of our charter members. These have been replaced by willing and ambitious adventurers—Sue Keever, formerly of Berryhill, Betty Lewis of Tech, Stokes Seegars of Oakhurst, Carolyn Thompson of Berryhill, Guinevere Barefoot of Belmont, Peggie Tyler of Harding, and Audrey Holt of Albemarle.

At the end of eight years of advancement, we began to look forward to bigger prey—English, History, Algebra, Chemistry, French, Geometry, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, and Typing.

Looking back, we think of the joyful anticipation of the Junior-Senior Banquet during our eleventh. This was our farewell token to the members of the twelfth grade.

The day we selected our rings was a happy day indeed, and now we are eagerly awaiting their arrival.

Our many extracurricular activities will always be remembered—basketball, Glee Club, Beta Club, French Club, and especially the senior play.

Since that first day we started our adventure, the time has passed quickly. The years ahead may be difficult ones, but we can hope with all our hearts that the rest of our years will bring the happiness and joy of our last twelve years at P.C.H.S. We realize that we are not finishing but beginning a far greater adventure for which we have been preparing.

CLASS POEM

For the Class of '49,
Our journey's end is near.
Work and play we've combined,
Throughout the past twelve years.

Memories with us shall go,
After our journey's through.
Of our many friends,
And of our teachers too.

Now Paw Creek is our guide,
In work that's to be done.
And we can be satisfied,
Our future will be a glorious one.

CLASS PROPHECY

During the last six months all the Seniors of the Class of 1948-1949 have fulfilled their agreement to bring me up to date on their progress during the past ten years. Here it is as I have been told:

Glenn Cooley is now proprietor of Todd's Grocery. Lethan Ashford and Ned Featherstone are his chief clerks.

Dwight Price, manager of Queen City Coach Company, has recently hired three new drivers: Emerson Edwards, Clinton Primm and Dwight Primm.

Raymond Auten and Stokes Seegers recently opened a new play on Broadway with Betty Lewis as the star of the show.

Worth Campbell, an accomplished pianist, recently accompanied Dorothy Clark, who made her singing debut over a coast-to-coast program.

Hoyt Johnston now owns a dry-cleaning business in Charlotte. Bud Lewis and Coyte Williams drive his delivery trucks.

Elizabeth Cooper is now a model in Rich's Store in Atlanta, Ga. Sara Lee Ivey is also working at Rich's as hostess in the Antoine Salon.

Oscar Kelly and Ernest Todd, the boys who had the opportunity of finishing high school during the summer of '49, are now quite well known; Oscar is coaching basketball at North Carolina State College and Ernest, who was our ace driver, recently set a one-hundred and eighty M.P.H. stock car record.

Ken Privette and Mendel Robinson are partners in a new laboratory in Pittsburgh working on the finer details of making boxing the top sport. Margaret Clark is their chief assistant and secretary.

Delores Thornburg and Mary Mingus are nurses in a large hospital in New York City where George Blakely is the business manager.

Mary Lou Stewart and Guinevere Barefoot have just opened a lovely and modern Beauty Salon in Mt. Holly, N. C.

Carolyn Thompson is a lady columnist, "This 'n' That" is the name of her column which appears in all the large newspapers.

It seems as if Ann Boiter and Donald Vaughn never left Paw Creek. Don is teaching in the High School and Anne is principal of the Grammar Grade School.

Walter Carpenter has been manager of the National Shirt and Hat Shop for seven years. Evelyn Turner is most content just being Mrs. Walter Carpenter.

Howard Roseman is president of the Roseman Insurance Company. Betty Lou Nantz is his stenographer and adviser.

Helen Joy and Sue Keever have been very successful in their exclusive dress shop in Charlotte, N. C.

Dorothy Strawn and Audrey Holt are missionaries, now working in China.

Peggie Joyce Tyler and Sara Tucker are the owners of a new tea room in Davidson and are doing exceedingly well.

Now—as I tell the story to them—I am a partner, my Dad's, in the Smith Lumber Company. Our treasurer? Of course it is Pat Sides.

MRS. KENNETH BEECH HELMS, Sponsor

Dear H. W. (my lover - m-a-n)

I have enjoyed going with you very much. I am very much enthralled with your beautiful blond curly hair (and you also) I hope you have a good time while you are in the Navy (if you go) But, before you get out, I'll bet you will be sorry you went in.

Don't ever forget the good times we have had together.
